

14. Feelings Do Not Have a Price . . . . .	67
15. May We Take Serum from a Killer Snake? . . . . .	70
16. The Suddenly Violent Gorilla . . . . .	73
17. A Yeshiva on a Grave? . . . . .	76
18. A Candle Fell on a Sleeping Man, His Dog Pulled the Candle away from Him and on to the Neighbor's Roof. Does the Owner of the Dog Have to Pay for the Damage the Candle Caused? . . . . .	78
19. Man Should Calm Himself Down . . . . .	81
20. I Gained, He Did Not Lose: Must I Pay? . . . . .	84
21. He Slept in His Friend's Apartment without Permission. It Caused the Municipality to Bill His Friend for Taxes. Must He Pay? . . . . .	87
Peace at a Price? . . . . .	88
22. Eisho Mishum Chitzav : The Eventual Damage Was Included at the Start of the Process . . . . .	91
23. A Child Playing with a Ball Broke a Neighbor's Window: Must the Father of the Child Pay? . . . . .	95
24. Someone Triggered a Dog's Response: Is the Dog Owner Exempt? . . . . .	97
25. When Would a Man, in Our Days, Who Is not a Convert, Have to Recite a Blessing for Immersion in a Mikveh ? . . . . .	99
26. Damage on Purim. . . . .	101
Is Forgetting Considered Negligence or an Innocent Mistake? . . . . .	102
27. Do You Need to Look Before You Walk? . . . . .	106
28. Lying to Retrieve Property . . . . .	108
29. How to Remove Damagers . . . . .	110
30. He Painted His Fence, Did Not Warn Anyone; A Passerby's Suit Was Ruined. Is He Liable? . . . . .	112
Why Study Daf ha-Yomi Before Davening ? . . . . .	113