

31. A Driver Suddenly Stopped His Car. The Car Behind Him Crashed into Him and Sustained Damage: Is the Driver Liable? . . . . .	116
32. Why Stand for Friday Night Kiddush? . . . . .	120
Is There Liability When One May Run? . . . . .	121
33. A Court Officer Was Bitten By a Dog: Does the Dog-Owner Need to Pay? . . . . .	124
34. Order of Claims in Bankruptcy . . . . .	126
35. An Arsonist Lit a Car on Fire on Shabbos: Must He Pay the Firefighters Who Put out the Flames? . . . . .	129
Do Animals Feel Pain? . . . . .	131
36. May Someone Call Someone Else “Mr. Nose”? . . . . .	133
37. An Ox Goring on Yom Tov . . . . .	135
38. The Intrinsic Rewards for Good Deeds. . . . .	137
39. He Trained a Pigeon to Steal, the Pigeon Damaged in the Act: Is the Trainer Liable for Full Damage? . . . . .	139
An Orphan Is Very Wild: May the Community Spend His Assets to Hire a Tutor to Guide Him? . . . . .	141
40. He Borrowed a Car and It Got Stolen, the Owner Did Not Have Insurance: Was the Borrower Liable? . . . . .	144
41. Honoring a Rebbe Muvhak . . . . .	148
42. How to Study . . . . .	150
43. Who Inherits Funds Paid by a Company as Compensation for Death? . . . . .	153
44. Is a Child Always Exempt from Paying for Damages? . . . . .	155
45. Does Every Killing Ox Get Put to Death? . . . . .	157
46. Must an Employer Pursue His Employees to Pay Them? . . . . .	159
47. May One Spray Fly Poison on Shabbos? . . . . .	161
48. Did He Have to Pay When He Caused the Police to Damage? . . . . .	164
49. Which Parent Gets to Name the Child? . . . . .	166
50. The Source for the Practice of Kapparos . . . . .	168