

51. Who Has to Return a Book to the Library? . . . . .	170
52. Does a Pit-Digger Need Atonement If Someone Fell into His Pit and Died?. . . . .	172
A Resident Put out a Trap to Catch Pigs but It Killed His Friend's Sheep: Must He Pay? . . . . .	174
53. Partners in Theft: Who Is Most Responsible? . . . . .	177
54. Using a Chipped Cup for Kiddush . . . . .	180
55. His Store Alarm Went Off, Neighbors Called Him: Must He Go at Night to Turn it Off? . . . . .	182
56. Moral Obligations . . . . .	184
Did a Neighbor Morally Have to Pay for Causing a Fine? . . . . .	185
57. Does a Doctor Need to Interrupt Treating Someone and Daven Minchah ? . . . . .	188
58. Who Needed to Pay for Catching A Snake? The People Who Ordered the Exterminator? Or All the Residents in the Neighborhood? . . . . .	190
Is Preventing Possible Loss a Benefit? . . . . .	192
59. A Woman Went into Labor in Her Home; A Neighbor Summoned a Midwife Who Helped Deliver the Baby: Do the Parents Need to Pay? . . . . .	194
60. He Left His Loaded Gun in the Classroom; A Child Fired It and Wounded Another Boy: Did the Adult Have to Pay? . . . . .	197
Drastic Times Call for Drastic Measures . . . . .	199
61. May One Steal to Save a Life? . . . . .	200
62. What Is the Law If You Used Someone Else's Price Club Card at the Supermarket? . . . . .	203
Does Fulfilling a Mitzvah Exempt from Damages? . . . . .	204
63. Paying for Raising False Hopes . . . . .	207
64. The Importance of Precision . . . . .	209
65. He Ate in a Restaurant that Falsely Claimed it Was Supervised by a Leading Agency: Was He Entitled to a Refund? . . . . .	211