

84. Entering Danger to Save Others . . . . .	268
85. Getting a Shot Before Yom Kippur in Order to Fast . . . . .	270
86. Respecting a Blind Torah Scholar . . . . .	272
87. When a Child Causes Damage . . . . .	274
88. What Is a Mohel to Do When the Father of the Baby Insists on No Religious Acts During the Bris ? . . . . .	277
89. Damaging a Sentimental Object . . . . .	279
90. Slapping a Thief so that He Will Admit . . . . .	282
91. Control Your Emotions . . . . .	284
Pulling Teeth . . . . .	286
Selling Organs . . . . .	288
92. Does a Professional Boxer Need to Pay His Friend for the Damage He Caused Him in the Ring? . . . . .	290
93. The Power of Trust . . . . .	292
The Meshullach Was Negligent and the Donations Were Lost: Must He Pay? . . . . .	293
94. If He Stole an Apple, Recited a Blessing, Then Paid for the Apple Before He Took a Bite, Must He Recite Another Blessing? . . . . .	295
Atonement for a Smoker . . . . .	297
95. Hashem Tears Down the Building to Return the Beam . . . . .	299
If He Stole a Sheep, Returned It, but When It Was Slaughtered It Had a Hole in the Lung, Must the Thief Pay for the Sheep? . . . . .	302
96. Delivering Esrogim After Sukkos . . . . .	304
97. Using Someone Else's Worker . . . . .	307
98. He Knocked over a Bottle of Oil Behind a Store Closet: Must He Pay? . . . . .	311
99. Would A Beis Din Make the Man Who Invited a Rabbi to a Non-Existent Wedding Have to Pay? . . . . .	313
100. Is There a Mitzvah of Bikkur Cholim ? . . . . .	315
101. May One Use Painted Reed Mats for Sechach ? . . . . .	318