

102. May We Hang Shemittah Fruits as Noi Sukkah ?	321
103. Travel to Return Theft	324
104. A Borrower Ready to Repay Is Entitled to Be Nervous	327
105. Someone Stole Two Aravos Worth a Perutah , Then Returned One: Would the Remaining Willow Be Acceptable to Wave with His Lulav ?	330
Fulfilling Half a Mitzvah	332
106. A Riddle: He Stole an Ox or Sheep and Slaughtered It, But He Was Not Obligated to Pay the Penalty of Fourfold or Fivefold	334
107. Obligating an Oath	337
108. A Tzaddik in the Moment	339
109. The Greatness of Tzedakah	342
110. He Purchased the Honor of Hagbah but then Fell Sick: Could He Give the Privilege to Someone Else?	345
111. He Came Late to Synagogue: Should He Pray Musaf with a Minyan , and then Pray Shacharis ?	348
112. Is a Suspected Abuser Entitled to Confront His Accusers and Witnesses in Court?	350
113. Cheating on Regents Exams?	353
Providing Meals for a Shabbos Flight	355
114. Who Owns the Letter of Solicitation?	357
115. Experimenting on Animals	359
Rabbinic Payments in Installments	361
116. Damaging an Insured Item	363
When Building a Needed New Synagogue Building, Does Every Member Contribute Equally, or Do the Wealthy Pay More?	365
117. Seeing the Rebbe Teach Makes the Student Wiser	367
118. Can a Landlord Back out of a Deal?	370
A Lender Who Found Counterfeit Currency	372
119. Stealing and Killing	374